

Donna Frederick

Donna Frederick is a Patient Partner affiliated with the Saskatchewan Center for Patient-Oriented Research (SCPOR). She contracted COVID in the early spring of 2020 via an asymptomatic carrier who attended the New Orleans Mardi Gras super spreader event. The unexplainable symptoms of Long COVID began to show up shortly after she recovered. Before developing Long COVID, Donna was an information specialist, academic librarian and teacher but now is a columnist and runs a shop on Etsy.