

Dr. Jeffrey Bakal

Dr. Jeffrey Bakal is the Program Director for Provincial Research Data Services at Alberta Health Services which operates the Alberta Strategy for Patient Oriented Research (SPOR) data platform and Health Services Statistical & Analytics Methods teams. He has over 15 years of experience working with Health Services data and Randomized Clinical Trials. He has worked on the methodology and analysis of national and international studies in many areas of medicine as well as several engineering and business applications.